- (a) any loss, theft or other inadvertent disclosure of Confidential Information, and
- (b) any unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information by persons (including, but not limited to, present and former employees) or entities to whom the Recipient under these Terms has the right to disclose Confidential Information, except where, the Recipient has used the same degree of care in safeguarding such Confidential Information as it uses for its own Confidential Information of like importance and in no event less than a reasonable degree of care; and upon becoming aware of such inadvertent or unauthorized disclosure the Recipient has promptly notified the Owner thereof and taken all reasonable measures to mitigate the effects of such disclosure and to prevent further disclosure.

6.3. The Recipient understands and agrees that:

- (a) any information known only to a few people to whom it might be of commercial interest and not generally known to the public is not public knowledge;
- (b) a combination of two or more parts of the Confidential Information is not public knowledge merely because each part is separately available to the public.

6.4. The Recipient acknowledges the technical, commercial and strategic value of the Confidential Information to the Owner and understands that unauthorized disclosure of such Confidential Information will be injurious to the Owner.

7. WARRANTIES

The Owner assumes no responsibility for any loss or damages which may be suffered by the Recipient, its customers or any third parties on account of or arising from the use of the Confidential Information by the Recipient. The Owner makes no warranties of any kind, whether express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of the Confidential Information. None of the Confidential Information disclosed by the Parties constitutes any representation, warranty, assurance, guarantee or inducement by either party to the other with respect to the infringement of trademarks, patents, copyrights; any rights of privacy; or any rights of third persons.

8. REMEDIES FOR BREACH OF CONFIDENTIALITY

8.1. The Recipient agrees and acknowledges that any disclosure of any Confidential Information prohibited herein, or any breach of the provisions herein may result in an irreparable injury and damage to the owner which will not be adequately compensable in terms of monetary damages. The owner will have no adequate remedy at law thereof, and that the owner may, in addition to all other remedies available to it at law or in equity, obtain such preliminary, temporary or permanent mandatory or restraining injunctions, orders or decrees as may be necessary to protect the owner against, or on account of, any breach by the Recipient of the provisions contained herein, and the Recipient agrees to reimburse the reasonable legal fees and other costs incurred by owner in enforcing the provisions of these Terms.

8.2. The Recipient agrees and acknowledges that any disclosure, misappropriation, conversion or dishonest use of the said Confidential Information shall, in addition to the remedies mentioned above, make the Recipient criminally liable for Breach of Trust under section 405 of the Indian Penal Code and a penalty for breach of confidentiality and privacy shall be imposed as per Section 72 in The Information Technology Act, 2000.

9. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES

The relationship of the Parties hereto shall be that of independent contractors. Nothing contained in these Terms shall be construed to imply a partnership, joint venture, principal and agent, or employer and employee relationship between the Parties and neither Party has any right, power or authority to represent the other Party or to create any obligation, express or implied, on behalf of the other. Neither these Terms, nor the furnishing of Confidential Information, constitutes an agreement, obligation or commitment by either Party to proceed with any transaction, or result in any liability, financial or otherwise, to the other Party or its clients.

10. INSIDE INFORMATION

The Parties acknowledge that some or all of the Confidential Information is or may be price-sensitive information and that the use of such information may be regulated or prohibited by applicable legislation relating to insider dealing, and the Parties undertake not to use any Confidential Information for any unlawful purpose.

11. COPYING AND RETURN OF FURNISHED INSTRUMENTS

11.1. The Recipient shall not be entitled to copy samples, models, computer programs, drawings, documents or other instruments furnished by the Owner hereunder and containing Confidential Information, unless and to the extent it is necessary for the Purpose.

11.2. All samples, models, computer programs, drawings, documents, and other instruments furnished hereunder and containing Confidential Information shall remain the Owner's property.

11.3. At any time upon request from the Owner or upon the conclusion of the Purpose or expiry of these Terms, the Recipient, at its own cost, will return or procure the return, promptly and in any event within 14 days of receipt of such request, of each and every copy of Confidential Information given by the Owner, and satisfy the Owner that it no longer holds any further Confidential Information

12. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

The Confidential Information shall remain the exclusive property of the Party which has disclosed it (or the applicable Affiliate or third party) and its disclosure shall not confer on the Recipient or its Representatives any rights (including without limitation any intellectual property rights) over the Confidential Information whatsoever beyond those contained in these Terms.

Except as expressly provided herein, the Parties do not grant, convey or transfer to the Recipient or any other person or entity any interest, license or other right, in or to its Confidential Information or any patent, copyright, trade secret, trademark or other intellectual property right.

13. WAIVER

No term or provision hereof will be considered waived, and no breach excused by the owner, unless such waiver or consent is in writing signed by or on behalf of the owner. No consent or waiver of a breach by the owner will constitute consent to the waiver of or excuse of any different or subsequent breach by the Recipient.

14. NOTICES

Any notice provided for or permitted under these Terms will be treated as having been given when (a) delivered personally, (b) sent by confirmed telecopy, (c) sent by commercial overnight courier with written verification of receipt, or (d) mailed postage prepaid by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to the party to be notified, at the address set forth below or at such other place of which the other party has been notified in accordance with the provisions of this clause. Such notice will be treated as having been received upon actual receipt or five days after posting.
